

Presenter: Patricia Gieselman, MFT

Patty is a licensed Marriage and Family Therapist and is the Founder and CEO of Choices Counseling & Skills Center. As a trainer and program consultant, Patty combines sensitivity, skill, care and humor with knowledge that comes from years of experience in using clinical methods that produce results. She has been an invited presenter in the areas of Dialectical Behavior Therapy (DBT) and Motivational Interviewing (MI) at local, state and national conferences including the California Alliance for Children and Families, Los Angeles County African American Mental Health Conference and the Child Welfare League of America. Patty has been a trainer for Los Angeles County

Department of Mental Health providing training on DBT for Substance Use Disorders, as well as Introductory and Applied MI trainings, for Transitional Age Youth Providers and Probation Camps since 2011.